Chapter 1 by Nini Reyes

Chapter 1

April 18, 1775

Dear Journal,

My whole life, my plans, my wife, all gone. I talked to my mom about me and she didn't care much. After, I tried to talk to my dad about how the British will go to war with us, but he didn't talk much either, since he is in the war with George Washington. I talked to my older sister, but she was also busy keeping her kids safe since her husband is also fighting with George Washington. That's all I could think about to, getting my kids to be safe.

"King George did this, so don't worry son. I will protect you." My dad told me when I was 24, in 1751.

Anyway that's it.

Dear Journal,

It's happening, The war... My kids are safe with my sister and her kids. I stayed to get extra appliances for me, my sister, her kids, and my kids. My mom just died because one of the King's guards came and killed most of us in Pennsylvania including my mom.

I got to go.

Chapter 2 by Fernando Vergara

April 20, 1775

Dear Journal,

The other day... Oh god! The door of the house it was open. I went in expecting the worst, when I went in, blood... blood all over the living room. My sister dead, my kids her kids, nowhere to be seen.

Where are the children?

Chapter 3 by Nini Reyes

April 21, 1775

Dear Journal,

This can't be, my sister the only one that would listen, dead. But... WHERE ARE THE KIDS??!!!!

After 20 minutes of crying I heard a noise of a gun shot. In my home shelter's forgotten room I busted down that door with all my might. I saw my sister's kids dead with the gun who murdered the kid. The gun was not British, it was from the British army or from our either, it had to be from our. I saw a weathered black and brown gun. "Dad, Uncle Asylum, my 4 kids and my niece and 2 nephews were all crying my name at the same time." shh shh shh shh I am here now. It's ok!

To be honest I was scared from the bottom of my heart. I mailed a letter to my dad stating what happened to his daughter and niece. He replied stating " WHAT!!! I will send 15 out of 23,675,897 soldiers out there to defend your 6 charges to protect to guys from harm. I got the letter saying that in less than 4 months.

Anyways, that's all.
